

Precision and Measuring Technology

Ceramic parts are manufactured to accuracy grade per customer specification. We manufacture e. g. master angles, surface plates and straight edges as well as guideways for coordinate measuring machines. Ceramic is the material of choice due to its excellent specific stiffness, low component weight (hollow profiles) and superior thermal stability. More about: Standard metrology products